UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff

v.

Case No 10-CR-253

CONRAD E. LEBEAU

Defendant - Appellant

---

Letter requesting the status of the Review

To Honorable Chief Judge Charles N Clevert Jr

517 E Wisconsin Ave
208 U.S. Courthouse
Milwaukee, WI 53202

Greetings: I am the defendant/appellant in the above case. This is a short letter of inquiry on the status of the review, which I understand must be completed before this case moves on to the 7th Circuit Court of Appeals in Chicago. I realize that there is more than an ample quantity of legal arguments to read and think about before you write your decision, and you have a lot of other cases on your plate. I discussed this with standby counsel, Dan Stiller, who suggested I write this letter of inquiry on the status of the review. I am hopeful that you will find to time to complete your review sometime this year.

Recently, I added a page of quotations from great historical thinkers, statesmen and philosophers to a link at keephopealive.org. I am inspired and moved by the wisdom and foresight of these great thinkers from Hippocrates to Doctor Benjamin Rush, a signor to the Declaration of Independence in 1776, and a strong advocate for freedom of choice in medicine. I have attached a copy, and hope you are also inspired by their words and insight.

On Liberty and Freedom

"The price of apathy is to be ruled by evil men" Plato 428 - 348 BC

"The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing"

Edmund Burke 1729-1797 (A British Statesman born in Ireland)

"The greatest threat to freedom everywhere is the unlimited concentration of power anywhere" Edmund Burke 1729-1797 (A British Statesman born in Ireland)

"Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take; but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!" Patrick Henry (1775) at St John's Church, Richmond, VA

On health and food-based medicine

"Let food be your medicine, and medicine be your food" Hippocrates - Greek physician (460 - 370 B.C.)

"Walking is man's best medicine" Hippocrates - Greek physician (460 - 370 B.C.)

"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" J. I Rodale founder of Prevention magazine

"Unless we put medical freedom into the Constitution the time will come when medicine will organize itself into an undercover dictatorship. To restrict the art of healing to doctors and deny equal privileges to others will constitute the Bastille of medical science. All such laws are un-American and despotic." Dr. Benjamin Rush, 1776 - a signer to the Declaration of Independence
